Love, Loathing and Longing Oct 03 2022 Hi, I'm Rishav. I'm a university graduate, and my flaw is falling in love with a peer girl. I find dashing Anuska in DU, the best fresher of the department, to be my perfect match, although our meeting in the first year goes very badly. Knowing that she has a boyfriend, I try to put her out of my mind until she embarks on a passionate love for me. Anjali, another batch-mate, simple and intelligent, is shocked to find out that she too wants me, whom she has thought of as her best friend. Like every ill-fated boyfriend, I am also loaded with two unique problems: earning money and getting parental consent to tie the nuptial knot. Finally, I come to a militancy-infested hill station to earn my keep. Anuska's father is a heart patient; she can't betray him. And I falter at the crucial moment. Anjali awaits me in the shadows... Love Loathing and Longing is not a love story with a happy ending. It's just a story of my unrequited love.

Insights on Peace and Conflict Reporting Aug 28 2019 As the second book in the Routledge Journalism Insights series, this edited collection explores the possibilities and challenges involved in contemporary reporting of peace and conflict. Featuring 16 expert contributing authors, the collection maps the field of peace and conflict reporting in a digital world, in a context where the financial prospects of the news industry are challenged and professional authority, credibility and autonomy are decaying. The contributors, ranging from prominent scholars to the Head of Newsgathering at the BBC, discuss a diverse range of key case studies, including the role of Bellingcat in conflict journalism; war and peace journalism in Bangladesh; visual storytelling in conflict zones; and rampant cyber-misogyny confronting women journalists in Finland, India, the Philippines and South Africa. Bringing together theory and practice, the collection offers an in-depth examination of the changes taking place in the working practices of journalists as ongoing, strategic assaults against them increase. Insights on Peace and Conflict Reporting is a powerful resource for students and academics in the fields of global journalism, foreign news reporting, conflict reporting, globalisation, media and international communication.
